Superintendent's Office,

U. S. Court and Post Office Building,

Philadelphia, February 11th 1880.

Col. A. Louden Snowden
Superintendent U. S. Mint
Philadelphia

Dear Sir:

Since the receipt of your letter regarding the ventilation of the Adjusting Room in the Mint building, I have looked into the subject, and find that a plan suggested by Mr. Maurice Matzinger, will I believe answer all your requirements and obviate all difficulties.

If you will kindly name an hour convenient to yourself, Mr. Matzinger will call upon you, and explain the method proposed.

Very Respectfully
John McArthur
Superintendent of Ry.
